the court set aside a deed executed by the late Michael McMahon, father of the litigants, which conveyed to the defendant thirty acres of land near the defendant thirty acres of land near Colesville. It was charged that at the time the deed was executed Michael McMahon was mentally incapable of making a valid deed, and that undue influence was used. Judge Peter, however, held that Mr. McMahon's mental condition was all right when he executed the paper and that the evidence failed to show that he had been unduly influenced. Mrs. Eslin was represented by Robert B. Peters of Rockville, and the defendant by Bouic & Bouic of Rockville.

June 25 will be go-to-church Sunday in Montgomery county. The churches forth especial efforts to have as many of the people of the county as are once on that day.
